

TIOF

The International Osprey Foundation was founded on Sanibel Island, Florida in 1983. Its founding principle is the protection and preservation of Ospreys worldwide. To that end, TIOF strives to educate and offer research grants internationally on raptor-related projects. TIOF also recruits and coordinates teams of volunteers who build and maintain osprey nesting platforms. Additional volunteers monitor osprey nests locally during breeding season and provide research data to Osprey Watch, a central database for Osprey research.
